

The gallery has many paintings. Some of them show places in the Mysore kingdom. Can you find them in the puzzle?

A	N	C	H	I	B	Q	W	R	T	Y	U	S	I
K	I	S	T	N	A	G	H	U	R	R	Y	E	P
Z	X	E	E	Q	N	Y	H	X	S	A	E	R	A
P	C	W	F	A	G	B	N	P	O	N	W	I	S
T	V	A	D	Z	A	G	M	W	A	G	Q	N	D
I	B	N	C	W	L	T	K	P	P	H	M	G	F
P	N	D	N	S	O	V	U	Q	E	E	N	A	G
U	M	R	A	X	R	F	I	D	N	R	B	P	H
S	J	O	T	C	E	R	L	G	N	R	V	A	J
U	Y	O	S	D	E	E	P	H	Y	Y	C	T	I
L	T	G	I	M	Y	S	O	R	E	U	X	A	O
N	A	N	D	Y	D	R	O	O	G	T	Z	M	P
T	A	N	L	A	U	L	B	A	G	H	L	Q	K

Here are four paintings showing people going to work 200 years ago! Can you find these images in the gallery and write down what they do?

Hint: Look at the captions next to the paintings.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

MYSORE	SERINGAPATAM
KISTNAGHURRY	BANGALORE
SEWANDROOG	RANGHERRY
LAULBAGH	NANDYDROOG

Have you ever met people who do any of these four jobs? What other jobs can you name?

.....

.....

.....

.....

TAKE A CLOSER LOOK

This print by Mather Brown shows an episode from the Anglo-Mysore Wars where the children of Tipu Sultan had to leave their home and go live with the British. Look at the scene carefully and write down words you would use to describe it.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Mather Brown (1761-1831), engraved by Francesco Bartolozzi (1727-1815)

The Departure of the Sons of Tippoo from the Zenana

Stipple engraving, tinted with watercolour on paper, 1793

Print size: 17.0 x 23.5 in. / 43.2 x 59.7 cm.

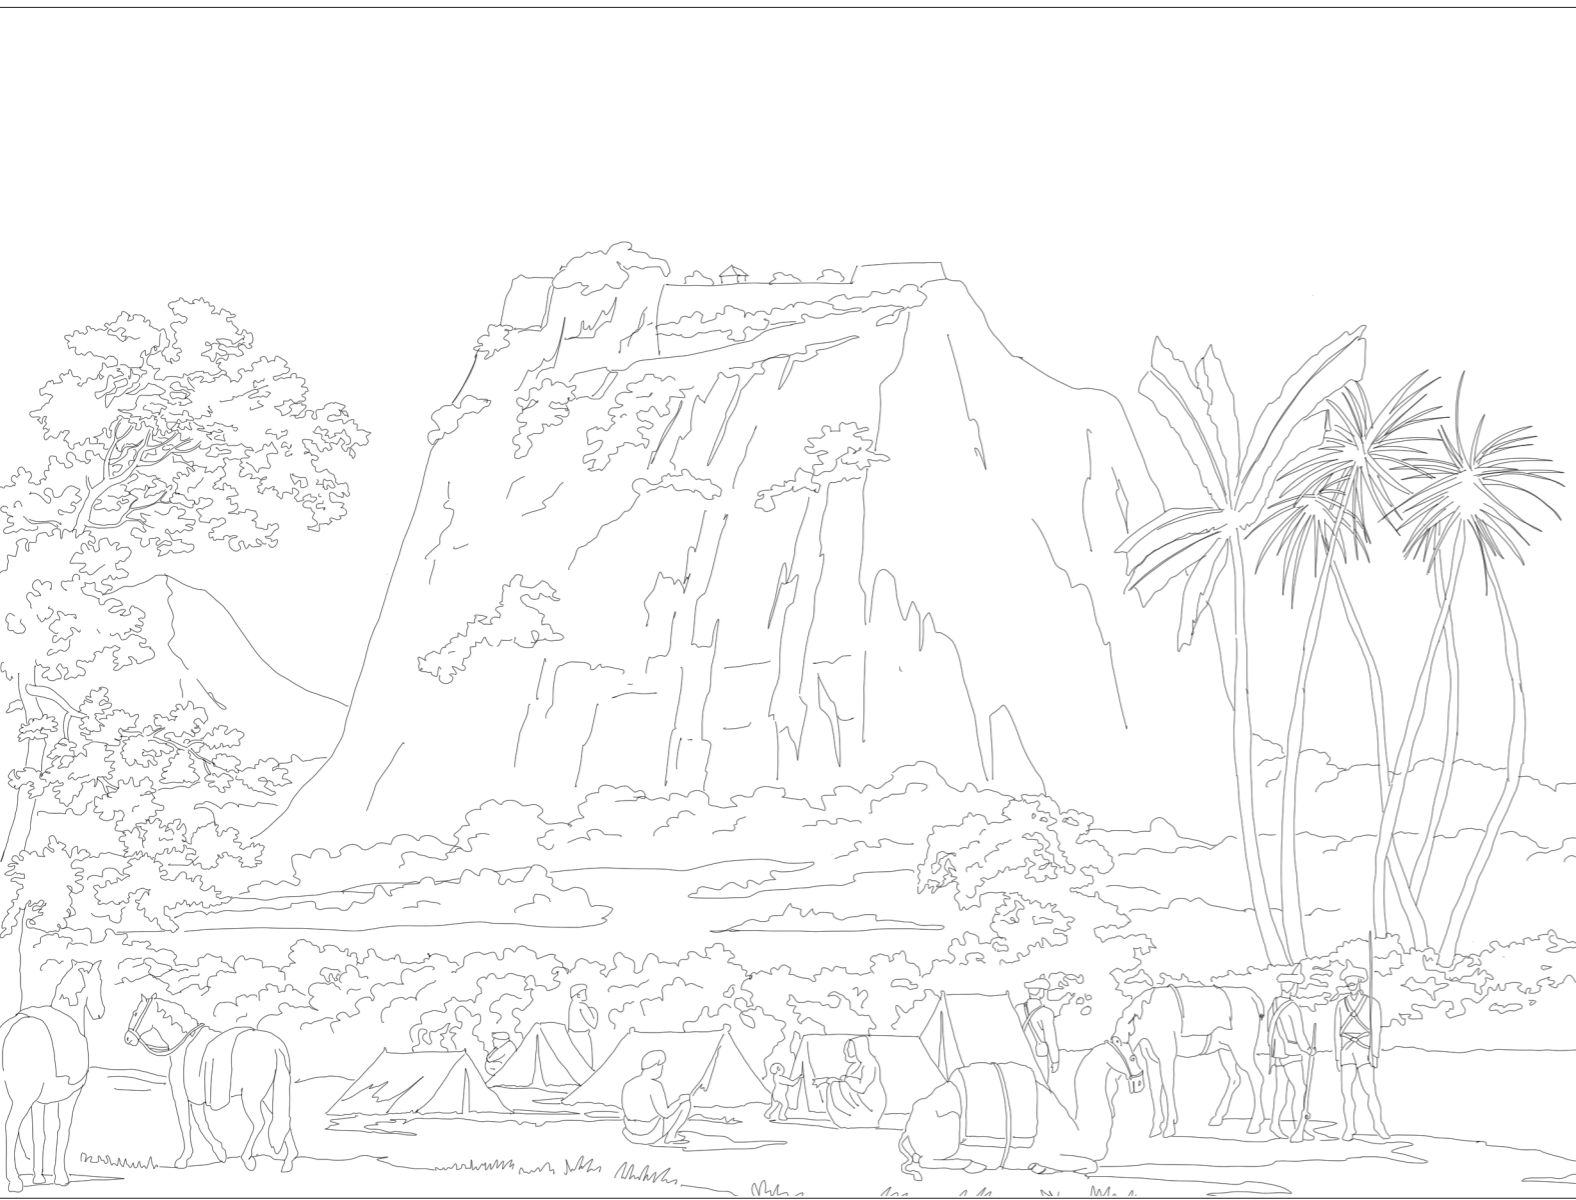

Paper size: 21.0 x 25.5 in./ 53.3 x 64.8 cm.

In print: Artist's name and inscription in English (lower left); inscription, title, artist's name and date in English (lower centre); and inscription in English (lower right)

Colour an Indian landscape from over 200 years ago!

Originally painted by James Hunter in India, this print called Shole Ghurry (Shoolagiri, located south-east of Bangalore) was published by Edward Orme in England in 1805.

TIPU'S CLUES

Can you find all 25 artworks using the following clues?

A newspaper		The longest artwork	A boy holding a bow
A large green flag over a fort		A painting by the artist Alexander Allan		A map of Bangalore from 1794
	A plateau called 'Nandydroog'		A circular painting
A man wearing yellow robes		Two potters		A medal of a lion fighting a tiger
	A tiger underneath a flag		A hill called 'Sewandroog'

